

Master's Scholarships for Public Policy and Good Governance (PPGG)

What are the objectives of the programme?

The programme is designed to academically qualify future leaders in politics, law, economics and administration according to the principles of Good Governance and to prepare them in a praxis-oriented course for their professional life. The programme offers very good graduates with a first university degree (Bachelor or equivalent) the chance to obtain a Master's degree in disciplines that are of special relevance for the social, political and economic development of their home country. With the knowledge and experience acquired in Germany the scholarship holders should later contribute to the establishment of democratically devised economic and social systems aimed at overcoming social tensions. In addition, the training at German institutions of higher education should especially qualify the scholarship holders as partners in political and economic cooperation with Germany. With this programme, DAAD intends to contribute to the support of Good Governance and civil society structures in selected partner countries and regions.

Target group: Who can apply?

Very well qualified Indonesian graduates with a first university degree (Bachelor or equivalent) who want to actively contribute to the social, political and economic development of their home country as future leaders. The scholarships are offered both for young graduates without professional experience and for mid-career professionals.

What is fundable?

Scholarships for (generally) two-year Master courses at a German institution of higher education. The successful candidates will study on selected Master courses with one of the following focuses:

- Development and Governance
- Public Policy
- Management in non-profit Organizations
- Democratic Governance and Society
- Public Economics, Law, and Politics

The courses have an international orientation and are taught in German or English or bilingual. The scholarship holders will study in groups and be offered special tutoring at their host institutions. Furthermore, there is the possibility of networking-events for participants in different courses and their attendance at tailor-made summer-schools.

All scholarship holders will be placed in German courses for normally 6 months before taking up their Master studies. This also applies to scholarship holders in Master courses taught in English.

DAAD pays a monthly scholarship rate of currently 750 € including the health insurance in Germany. In addition, DAAD grants an appropriate travel allowance as well as a study and research subsidy and in applicable cases rent subsidies and / or family allowances.

Requirements / main selection criteria

In addition to the study results achieved so far, the main criterion for selection is a convincing description of the subject-related and personal motivation for the study project in Germany and the expected benefit after the return to the home country.

For Master courses taught in German or in German and English language, good German knowledge, ideally at completed A 2 level (basic level at Goethe-Institut) at the time of application is an advantage, as the universities generally require good German knowledge. For courses taught in English documented good English knowledge (generally a minimum of 550/80 international TOEFL scores) is required.

The university degree should have been obtained during the last six years before the application for the scholarship. Applicants cannot be considered if they have been in Germany for more than one year at the time of application. All Master courses have further additional requirements that must be fulfilled by the applicants at any case.

Application papers

Please submit the following application papers (English or German) in triplicate:

- Application Form DAAD (see attachment or download from <http://www.daadjkt.org/index.php?download-area>)
- A full curriculum vitae
- A motivation letter containing a precise description of the applicant's academic or professional and personal reasons for wishing to participate in the program.
- Two letters of recommendation of recent date, e.g. from current or former employer and from your previous academic supervisor (in English or German)
- Certified copies of academic degree certificates obtained, together with English or German translation
- Certified copies of the academic transcript, covering the complete duration of academic studies, together with English or German translation
- Any German language certificate and / or English language certificate (TOEFL 550/80 points or IELTS Band 6; please submit international TOEFL)
- The admission letter from German university is not required.

Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Applications have to be made for 2 or 3 of eight Master courses listed below. Studying on a Master course not included in the list cannot be funded within this program.

The decision on the award of scholarships will be taken by a selection committee composed of professors from the Master courses and representatives of DAAD.

Deadline

The complete set of application papers (in triplicate) must be submitted to the DAAD Jakarta on 31 July 2012 at the latest. Please write down “PPGG” on the envelop.
